

PLAIN ENGLISH

CURRICULUM VITAE

NATALIA SARRO

Natalia Sarro is a licensed Psychologist, Intercultural Trainer & Career Coach.

Her passion is to:

- help individuals and teams unleash their creative potential when living and working across cultures
- assist professionals and entrepreneurs discover their personal mission and turn it into meaningful jobs and careers.

Her areas of expertise are: Intercultural Training & Coaching (global leaders & teams, expatriates, repatriates, families in global transition), Intercultural communication & teambuilding and International Recruiting & Headhunting. She has multiple certifications in teamwork and intercultural training and coaching, including COF (Cultural Orientations Framework, developed by Rosinski & Company).

In the past years, Natalia held global HR recruitment & training positions in Lufthansa (Germany), Wellington Public Hospital (New Zealand) and Avature (Argentina/ US).

Her passion for the intercultural communication field took her around Argentina, Brazil, Uruguay, Germany and Spain. She delivered workshops and presentations for global companies (Unilever, Novartis, Johnson & Johnson, Dow, Monsanto), international universities (Karlshochschule International University, University of Washington, Universidad Torcuato Di Tella) and non-for-profit organizations (SIETAR Spain, AFS Argentina & Germany) among others.

Natalia speaks Spanish, English, German and basic Italian.

She lived in Germany and New Zealand, and is currently living in Buenos Aires, Argentina.